

WINTER SCHEDULE

Classes for Children and Teenagers

Mature young people age 13 and above are welcome to join adult classes (unless otherwise noted).

PROJECTS DO NOT REPEAT FROM SESSION TO SESSION.

Drawing and Painting (Ages 6-12)

Mondays, January 9 – February 27 (no class 1/16 or 2/20); 6 weeks 3:45pm – 5:15pm $115 (includes materials)

This class will help students develop their painting and drawing skills through weekly technique demonstrations, material experimentation and projects which focus on a variety of subject matter. We will explore ways that value, line, color, perspective and design principles can enhance a work of art. This will be a fun and relaxed introduction for students who feel less confident in their abilities as well as an opportunity for students with more experience to develop their skills.

Sculpture Extravaganza (Ages 6 – 12)

Tuesdays, January 10 - February 28 (no class 2/21); 7 weeks 3:45pm – 5:15pm $135 (includes materials)

Children in this class will turn their ideas into 3- dimensional pieces of art! We will work with clay, wood, cardboard, paper mache, wire and more to create a variety of small and large sculptures. This is a great class for children who have big imaginations and a love for building! Come ready to get your hands messy! Smocks are provided.

Art Exploration (Ages 5-12)

Wednesdays, January 11 – February 29 (no class 2/22); 7 weeks 3:45pm – 5:15pm $125 (materials included)

Thursdays, January 12 – March 1 (no class 1/26 or 2/23); 6 weeks 3:45pm – 5:15pm $115 (materials included)

This class is perfect for children who want to try a little bit of everything! Students will have the opportunity to explore a variety of materials and techniques. Throughout the session we will experiment with painting, printmaking, drawing, fiber arts, sculpture, collage, and more! At the end of each class there will be “choice time”: an opportunity for students to explore materials and subject matter of their choice.

Mixed Level Watercolor and Acrylic Painting (Ages 13+)

Thursdays, January 12 – March 1 (no class 1/26 or 2/23); 6 weeks 6:30pm - 8:30pm $115 (Bring your own materials) or $140 (materials provided)

This class will accommodate students of mixed levels working in watercolor and acrylic mediums including true beginners. Demonstrations and process/material suggestions for both watercolor and acrylic (including color theory, mixing, how to develop a painting, brushes and their uses, etc.) will be provided for those in the class who find them useful. Students are also welcome to use the two hour class period to work on their own in an environment where feedback and critique are available. Subject matter for painting will be provided, though students are welcome to bring in their own objects or images from which to work.

A Morning of Painting and Art History for Children and Their Parents!

Saturday, March 10 9:30am-11:30am; Ages 6 -11 with an adult; $25 for a parent/child pair ($10 for each additional participating person) includes materials

Come make several beautiful paintings as we learn about and make art inspired by Georgia O'Keefe, Georges Seurat and Henri Matisse. This is a great opportunity to learn different approaches to the process of painting and to make art together or just side by side! No prior art-making experience necessary. Dress for mess!! Register by Wednesday, March 7.

Gelatin Prints! – A MORNING WORKSHOP!

Sunday, January 22 10:00am – 12:00pm $30 (materials included)

Gelatin Printing is an easy form of monotype printing for both the novice and experienced artist! Ink and a variety of other textured materials are laid on a gelatin slab, resulting in detailed and unique images that do not require a press. This is a great opportunity to try your hand at printmaking and/or to further develop your artistic voice through a new medium! No prior art experience needed.

The Fundamentals of Color Theory ---- AN AFTERNOON WORKSHOP!

Saturday, February 11 2:00pm – 4:30pm $40 (includes materials)

This one afternoon workshop is designed for those people who want to improve their understanding of color theory as a way of improving their ability to mix colors, create dynamic compositions and convey mood in their work. We will spend the 3 hours creating our own color wheels, value swatches and other mixing tests as well as exploring the impact of colors when they are placed together through a variety of painting and/or drawing exercises. This class will be a fun and useful introduction (or review) to color principles for the novice and experienced artist!

Due to inclement weather during the winter months, classes may be canceled. Art Always does not always follow the public schools for cancellations and will be in touch with families by phone and email if a class is canceled. An outgoing message will also be left on the studio voice mail communicating any cancellations. Should a class be canceled, a make-up class will be held at the end of the session, extending the session one extra week.*
